You are invited to our Week of the Young Child Celebration!

No cost or fee.

Our celebration will be observed May 9, 2018

- Appreciation breakfast for Child Care Providers from 8:30-10:30 am. Everyone is welcome! Come enjoy breakfast at the Partnership and receive free children's books and activity/information packets (while supplies last). Parents and child care providers may bring the children or come pick up books to take back to them.
- Also accepting artwork now until the end of May 2018. Themes this year are family and fitness but we will accept any art from the children. Bring artwork to the office or post on Facebook www.facebook.com/CaswellPartnershipForChildren and tag us! Submit art and come by the office to receive free children's books and activity/information packets (while supplies last). Art submitted in person will be posted at the Partnership Office.
- Visit our newly reorganized Resource Lending Library. Resource books for teachers and staff are easier to find, old resources have been tossed out and new resources have been added! FREE for you and your children!
- Register your child for the Dolly Parton's Imagination Library!
